

I don't believe that any broadcasting group is allowed to only represent one side of any issue. Sinclair is unfairly forcing all of it's stations to run this so-called documentary, yet not allowing any response to air. This is biased, and represents a corporate paid for in-kind contribution.